

School Registration & Fee Waiver

Fort Foster Living History School Days

Wed. Feb 05, 2020 Thu. Feb 06, 2020 Fri. Feb 07, 2020

10am – 1pm

Experience the Real Florida Frontier at the Fort Foster Historic Site, originally constructed in 1835. Park Rangers and reenactors provide tours, explain the Fort operations and living conditions during the Second Seminole War. This special living history program will feature the Seminoles, the military and civilians along with craft demonstrations, vendors, merchants and much more. The program is ideal for all school age students. Admission is a $2 donation per student (Teachers and Chaperons are free). Checks should be made out to Hillsborough River State Park Preservation Society and due upon entry. Bus parking is available.
